

Introduction

Kennon Bry Fretwell (1853-1940) of Portland, Oregon remembers the family tradition "at the beginning" with three Fretwell brothers, two of them living in states adjacent to South Carolina. No record has been found yet establishing a relationship among the men in Surry County: Joseph (ca1743-1784, Surry Co., NC) , William (ca1792-1867, Henry Co., VA) and John (ca1770-1847, Anderson Co., SC). John has several descendants named Joseph and a diligent search has been made to connect them to Joseph (ca1743-1784, Surry Co., NC), whereas records do show Joseph to be the son of William Fretwell (ca1700-1786, Cumberland County, Virginia. (2011)

Robert T. Fretwell (ca1911-) remembers his father, Arthur Gibbs Fretwell, Jr. (1879-1919) telling him that "three brothers came from Wales, England. They might have had their father with them..." (2013).

Speculation about Descendant No. 9: Arthur Fretwell (1824-1876). Records found under the names of A. L. or A. J. (CSA), Arthur (FC) and Althea Gentry Fretwell (burial) in Bibb County, Georgia. (2016)

A name followed by ????? indicates challenge to parental ancestry.
